PROFILE

Max joined chambers in October 2020, having completed a year as a Legal Administrator working in Private Criminal Prosecutions. Max assists the Head of Chambers, Lawrence Power, with billing & casework, as well as managing chambers' social media presence.

During his time at chambers, Max also studies a Certificate in Knowledge of Policing (CKP), with the aspiration to join the Police Service in 2021.

In his spare time, Max is a Volunteer Cadet attached to the Metropolitan Police Service, where he learns about the police service, the legislation surrounding their work and social issues effecting policing.

Max has a great interest in proceeds of crime, international law and serious fraud.
