Legal Practice Course, University of Northumbria.

PROFILE

Robert joined Whitestone in April 2016. Robert plays an integral role in Chambers and assists tenants at every level. Following LPC graduation, Robert spent 8 years living and working in Beijing. Having been initially employed as an English teacher, he went on to teach UK law at some of the largest state-owned institutions in China including the State Intellectual Property Office of China, the China Construction and Engineering Company and the China Aluminium and Copper Corporation. He is a confident Mandarin speaker.

RESPONSIBILITIES

Robert plays an integral role in Chambers and assists tenants at every level. His workload includes overseeing legal operations, practice growth, chambers' business activities, diary management, fee negotiation and marketing. Robert is also the first point of contact for all Direct Public Access clients. As a result of Robert's legal education, he has a thorough understanding of the areas of law that Whitestone Chambers specialise in, as well as court procedure and legal process. This allows him to liaise with solicitors at quality level.
